GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

This document sets out the General Terms and Conditions of our relationship with you. The payment of the deposit, of any other partial or total payment for a reservation constitutes consent of the terms and conditions set here-in.

1. TRIP FEES

An initial non-refundable deposit of $500/person with a minimum of 10 and maximum number of 15 participants per group will be made to the BMTE PayPal account before the trip dates will be reserved.

The remainder of the trip fee must be brought in an envelope in cash. Credit cards, personal checks, cashier checks, traveler checks and money orders are not acceptable forms of payment. It must be cash and delivered upon arrival to Lima. The remainder of the trip fee is $1495.00. Additional fees not included in the trip price include tips and gratuities for meals, drivers and tour guides as well as any table rentals for participants requesting the use of BMTE tables during the Lima portion of the trip. The amount of $40.00/person for tips and $105(for participants that request a table) will be included in the same envelope in cash. Credit cards, personal checks, cashier checks, traveler checks and money orders are not acceptable forms of payment for tips. The BMTE will be responsible for delivering tips during the trip. The total amount to be included in the envelope is $$1495 + $40 = $1535$ and for those participants renting tables will be $$1495 + $40 + 105 = $1640$

2. REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

All participants are required to submit a copy of their current and valid passport as well as a signed refund letter. Our third party travel service providers prior to reservations being made require these documents.

3. PROGRAMS AND ITINERARIES

BMTE offers a consulting, booking and coordinating service by preparing itineraries within Peru. We take care of bookings and payments on your behalf with a selection of various independent suppliers, such as hotels, restaurants, airlines and other means of transportation, private guides and other services specified in the itinerary; that even though are not under our direct control, provide a high quality service.

4. TRAVEL DOCUMENTS AND PASSPORTS

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have a valid passport and meet all necessary entry requirements of our country.

These vary by country and nationality and can change from time to time. BMTE will do its best to inform you of these general requirements, but we ask that you contact the corresponding embassy/consulate in your country of residence.

5. PRIVACY

BMTE is required to collect personal information (such as passport details). We understand the sensitive nature of this information and will not share it with third parties (other than as required for booking air, hotel or other reservations as a part of the trip) without your express written permission. By providing your initial deposit, you are consenting to BMTE collecting and using your personal information as required for planning their trip and provide them with proper services.

6. INSURANCE

We strongly recommend you to have an appropriate personal and health insurance before taking a trip with us, as it is a condition of booking that the sole responsibility lies with you to ensure that you carry the correct comprehensive travel and medical insurances to cover yourself, as well as any dependants or traveling companions for the duration of your trip to Peru. The insurance should include coverage in respect of, but not limited to, the following eventualities: cancellation or curtailment of the trip, emergency evacuation expenses, medical expenses, and repatriation expenses, damage/theft/ loss of personal baggage, money and goods. BMTE, including our representatives, and agents will take no responsibility of any cost, losses incurred or suffered by you, or your dependants or traveling companions, with regards to but not limited to, any of the above mentioned eventualities. You will be charged directly by the relevant service providers for any emergency services you may require, and may find yourself in a position unable to access such services should you not be carrying the relevant insurance coverage. We also urge you to review medical concerns regarding international travel.

7. HEALTH

By sending us your initial deposit you certify you do not have any physical condition that would make traveling unsafe for you. It is your responsibility to have received all appropriate vaccinations.

8. RISKS

Travel involves risks. Transportation, communication and healthcare standards may be different from what you get at home. Medical facilities and services may not be readily accessible and may not be sophisticated. At your risk, we may recommend some optional activities at some of the places they will visit. Some of these activities, as well as our trips, may be physically demanding and there is a risk of serious personal injury. These optional activities include, but are not limited to: horseback tours, canoe trips, hiking, river rafting, etc. Be aware that your personal safety cannot be guaranteed and BMTE assumes no responsibility for your safety. For those traveling to high altitude cities, we urge you to consult your physician before participating in the trip and take all necessary precautions.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY, RELEASE AND INDEMNITY

As a result, upon acceptance of the proposed itinerary, we proceed with bookings and payments on your behalf with involved independent suppliers and/or third-party providers (hotels, local guides, transportation companies, restaurants, airlines, tour operators). BMTE has no right to control their operations and therefore makes travel arrangements for the trips on the condition that BMTE will neither be liable for the quality of the services given by any independent supplier or any unrelated third party providers, nor for any act or omission. Similarly, BMTE cannot be responsible for any loss or inconvenience due to sickness, lack of appropriate medical care, epidemics, quarantines, strikes, fire, wars, civil disturbances, terrorist acts, thefts, acts of God, acts of local government or other authorities, adverse weather conditions, dangers incident to sea, land and air travel and other similar acts or incidents beyond our ability to control our suppliers.

Domestic flights are, occasionally, subject to overbooking, cancellation and schedule changes. If this occurs, we do everything in our power to assist you in boarding flights or finding alternate arrangements. It must be stressed that this is done as a courtesy to you and we cannot be held responsible for denied boarding; neither for the additional costs thus incurred, nor for payments not recovered for missed land arrangements due to airline delays or cancellations.

10. CANCELLATION UNUSED SERVICES AND REFUND POLICY

- There will be no refund made for cancelled or unused services for any reason whatsoever.

11. TRIP CANCELLATION AND CHANGES TO YOUR TRIP

BMTE retains the right to make changes to your trip and/or may cancel your trip in particular circumstances, for example, if your safety or the quality of the trip is deemed to be compromised. If we do cancel the trip, we will refund what you have paid us, but we cannot be held responsible for losses you may incur with third parties, such as airlines or hotels.
